You can also visit the garden; it is a “walking” garden with a big pond. You’re in for treat this evening!! Along with dinner, we are entertained by an authentic Geiko. Day 13: Sun, July 03 – SADO ISLAND. This morning, take a traditional “Tarai-Bune” boat ride. The tarai-bune tub boats floating along the Ogi coastline are considered the symbol of Ogi. These boats are constructed out of cedar wrapped with bamboo on the outside, with a diameter of about 150 cm. Developed and used during Edo and Meiji periods, the tarai-bune tub boats, mainly operated by women, were ideal for tight turn and stability amidst the abundant reefs and coves along the Ogi Peninsula. These boats were originally used for collecting shellfish and seaweed from around the coast. Next, visit the charming fishing village of Shukunegi. The entire village is designated as a “National Historic Site.” Take a stroll along the narrow streets of Shukunegi Village to feel the history and experience the living conditions of people living during the Edo period. As this area was previously a trading port for ships going to Edo (Tokyo) and Osaka, many who lived here were ship carpenters and sailors. Here, you will be able to find the popular sankaku-ya which is a triangle-shaped house, built to fit the shape of the land available at that period of time. After lunch, visit the Obata Sake Brewery for a tour and tasting of their products. Enjoy dinner at La Plage, a local restaurant, before returning to the hotel for the evening. (B, L, D)

Day 14: Mon, July 04 – SADO ISLAND – NAGANO. Transfer to Ogi Port. Take a jet foil to Nagano. Upon arrival in Nagano, visit the Jigokudani Snow Monkey Park, home to a very special troop of monkeys. Created in 1964, the park was established as a conservation area in which these monkeys – Japanese macaques – would have a refuge within what was already their natural habitat. The Monkey Park is a unique place where you can observe the wild monkeys going about their daily lives including the unique behavior of bathing in onsens (natural hot springs). They are the only troop known to do so, something that entered the global consciousness in 1970 when LIFE magazine profiled the bathing monkeys on its cover. Since that time, visitors from around the world have been coming to the park to spend time with the famous snow monkeys of Jigokudani. Transfer to the hotel for dinner. HOTEL METROPOLITAN NAGANO (2 Nights) (B, D)

Day 15: Tue, July 05 – NAGANO. After breakfast, take a tour of Nagano’s Zenkoji Temple, one of the most important and popular temples in Japan.

Founded in the 7th century, it stores the first Buddhist statue ever to be brought into Japan when Buddhism was first introduced in the 6th century. Next, practice the art of Shakyo, the tracing of the sutras. While the Buddhist practice of Shakyo was originally a means of spreading the Buddha Way, today people practice shakyo to reflect on themselves or to attain mental well-being and peace. After lunch (on your own), take a tour of a sake brewery and taste some of their tasty products. For dinner tonight, you’re in for a real treat! Dine at Fujiya Gohonjin, a favorite of prominent local figures and celebrities for more than 300 years. While the outside of the building reflects western Art Deco, you’ll feel like you’ve stepped back in time, to the atmosphere and culture of the Taisho period, when you enter the building. With service spanning the Meiji, Taisho, and Showa periods, “Fujiya” continues to provide the highest level of customer care originally lavished on Daimyo Lords of the Edo era. Experience this level of service first hand at dinner. After dinner, return to the hotel for the evening. (B, D)

Day 16: Wed, July 06 – NAGANO – TOKYO. Begin the day with a visit to Daio Wasabi Farm, one of the country’s largest wasabi farm. The farm has multiple large fields with a network of small streams, that provide clear, flowing water from the Northern Alps. Only under such pristine conditions is wasabi cultivation possible. A wide variety of wasabi related products are available. Ever wondered what wasabi ice cream or wasabi beer taste like? Next, visit the Matsumoto Castle, one of Japan’s premier historic castles. Also known as “Crow Castle” due to its black exterior, Matsumoto Castle is unique for having both a secondary donjon and a turret adjoined to its main keep. After lunch, depart Matsumoto for Tokyo. Enroute, stop at Narai-juku, which will give you a feeling of how the Japan of old was. Enjoy a stroll down the charming streets with its samurai-era atmosphere. Take a sip of pure spring water from a roadside wells called mizuba. The evening is free for you to explore Tokyo on your own. KEIO PLAZA HOTEL TOKYO (1 Night) (B, L)

Day 17: Thur, July 07 – TOKYO – HONOLULU. After breakfast, begin the day with a visit to Asakusa, the center of Tokyo’s shitamachi (literally “low city”) districts, where an atmosphere of the Tokyo of past decades survives. Asakusa’s main attraction is Sensoji, a very popular Buddhist temple built in the 7th century. The temple is approached via the Nakamise, a shopping street that has been providing temple visitors with a variety of traditional local snacks and tourist souvenirs for centuries. Enjoy time for lunch (on your own) and shopping at Tsukiji Outer Market. Although the Inner Market (and live auctions) have relocated, the Outer Market remains – full of a mixture of wholesale and retail shops along with numerous restaurants. Seafood fresh from the auction block are available for purchase. Lastly, visit Ameyoko, a busy market street along the Yamanote Line tracks between Okachimachi and Ueno Stations. The name “Ameyoko” is a short form for “Ameya Yokocho” (candy store alley), as candies were traditionally sold there. Alternatively, “Ame” also stands for “America”, because a lot of American products used to be available there when the street was the site of a black market in the years following World War II. Today, various products such as clothes, bags, cosmetics, fresh fish, dried food, and spices are sold along Ameyoko. Transfer to the airport for the flight home. Depart Tokyo and arrive Honolulu the same day. Aloha and Welcome Home! (B)
